In case you didn't know:

"Antifa" has made a statement:

TO: ALL MEDIA

PUBLIC STATEMENT FROM "ANTIFA" IN RESPONSE TO THE THREATS
ISSUED BY UNITED STATES PRESIDENT DONALD J. TRUMP

Dear Mr. Trump:

Let us be perfectly clear:

"Antifa" isn't an organization. There's no membership, no meetings, no dues, no rules, no leaders, no structure. It is, literally, an idea and nothing more. Even the claim of this author to represent "Antifa" is one made unilaterally for the purposes of this communication and nothing more; there is no governing body nor trademark owner to dispute the author's right to represent "AntiFa."

"Antifa" is a neologism constructed from a contraction of the phrase "anti-fascist." The truth is, there's no such thing as being "anti-Fascist." Either you are a decent human being with a conscience, or you are a fascist.

The ostensible president of the United States has, today, openly declared that he is a fascist, and that he intends to turn the military power of the United States into a fascist tool.

Now there is no question, and we can stop pretending that this man represents anything but the worst in humanity, which his supporters embody.

And that is the only effect his words will have.

It will likely be no problem for LEO to identify the author of this document, who also has maintained the "AntiFa" page on Facebook since founding it in 2017.

The author of this document is unconcerned with that inevitability because neither that author, nor this document, has been involved in a crime of any sort in any way.

But, since both the "president" and the media insist on acting as though "AntiFa" is this big, scary organization, the author supposes it's time for "AntiFa" to make a statement.

20CV34319-JOdisclosures-0009

Thus:

"AntiFa supports and defends the right of all people to live free from

Thus:

"AntiFa supports and defends the right of all people to live free from oppressive abuse of power, whether that power is unjustly derived from wealth, status as an employer, or political popularity.

Particularly, AntiFa defends and supports the right of oppressed and marginalized people to protest, march, and engage in civil disobedience in pursuit of justice. While it is never our intent to engage in violent or destructive behavior, we cannot and will not take responsibility for telling people how they are allowed to be righteously outraged. We prefer and encourage non-violent action. We also understand that some people just aren't feeling that nice anymore. Their feelings are entirely justified, and it is neither our role nor our privilege to tell them otherwise.

Mass civil disobedience is what happens when people say they're hurting and whoever's hurting them refuses to stop.

Stop hurting them. Fix your broken systems. Get real and meaningful psychological evaluations and background checks - police in some nations have to pass a more stringent test to carry pepper spray than any police department in the US, or the US military, have in place. As a direct and possibly deliberate consequence, our military and paramilitary personnel simply cannot be assumed to be fighting in the interests of the people of this country.

We've all seen the photos. This destruction and burning and looting is largely the behavior of outsiders; white people taking advantage of the situation both to enrich themselves by looting under cover of the protests, and to provide excuses for uncontrolled fascist elements within our military and police forces as plausible cover for killing more black, brown, and poor people without fear of sanction. The so-called "accelerationists" who have committed to ensuring that, any time a marginalized community stands up and demands justice, construct a narrative of criminality and destruction that white bigots and affluent oligarchs who benefit from our broken system to validate their bigotry and injustice retroactively. They are successful in this for two reasons: because people like you are easily manipulated in your banal, self-serving ignorance, and because people like you are more than happy to passive-aggressively reap the benefits of pretending to believe this destruction is the act of the oppressed.

This game has gone on for decades on an endless loop since the very dawn of the civil rights era, and we the people are saying 'no more.'"

20CV34319-JOdisclosures-0010

And that, "President" Trump, is your solution. No more. Get the dirt out of your law enforcement and your military. Get the dirt out of your government and administration. Ideally, resign now, and take your VP dawn of the civil rights era, and we the people are saying 'no more.'"

And that, "President" Trump, is your solution. No more. Get the dirt out of your law enforcement and your military. Get the dirt out of your government and administration. Ideally, resign now and take your VP and cabinet with you; Nancy Pelosi isn't a great deal of improvement, but she'll only be president for a few months.

You can't arrest 100 million of us, sir, and you would be well-advised not to try. If you think that targeting and "making an example of" the author of this document will get you anywhere, you may rest assured that this author is more than prepared to allow his real name to be used as a rallying cry for justice and civil disobedience from coast to coast.

It is time for you and everyone who thinks like you to understand that whether black, red, brown, white, or any other color, Americans are done living in a nation of empty platitudes and broken promises.

Traditionally, this type of document is accompanied by a list of "demands." Here are our demands:

- Universal single payer health care, without regard for citizenship status.
- Universal basic income WITH a federal job guarantee, under which the federal government becomes the "employer of last resort." Involuntary unemployment is a function of profiteering by fascist capitalist oligarchs who are willing to sacrifice the lives of others for their own enrichment. It must end.
- The abolition of "right to work laws" which do exactly the opposite of ensuring anyone's right to work.
- Publicly funded higher education.
- Robust and effective social welfare programs to include child care, education, employment training and counseling, parenting skills training, and life skills training including fiscal education.
- A requirement that functional proficiency in media, political, and economic literacy be demonstrated to graduate high school.
- The creation of a publicly funded non-partisan media source to serve as the primary source of government information, to be overseen and managed day to day by a coalition of well-known communicators, political scientists, and other experts in propaganda to strip ALL bias from official information before it is broadcast.
- Federal charges of treason filed against anyone willfully and knowingly attempting to minimize public perception of the impact and risks of the coronavirus.
- Reform of whistleblower laws to ensure they have teeth, and particularly to ensure that a whistleblower, acting in good faith, is not identified to the public, ever.

identified to the public, ever.

In the end, Mr. "President," the simple reality is that "AntiFa" isn't a thing. You can't end it, you can't arrest it, and you can't silence it. Nor, in any decent nation, would the attempt even be made.

"Antifa" means "Anti-Fascism." The only position that opposes that is fascism. In the end, there is no "organization" that you can "declare terrorists."

You, sir, and yours, are the terrorists, and your victims are done putting up with it.

America is not, in spite of having an openly admitted fascist as "president," a fascist nation. We've had wars about this. The fascists are 0-2.

Please, Mr. "President" - let's not try to make it 0-3? Because it will never, ever be 1-2, and none of us wants to see the death toll from your attempt to make it so.

Currently, media and other actors wishing to contact this author may do so through the page. Should Mr. Zuckerberg, who has displayed plenty of authoritarian and fascist tendencies himself, decide not to host that page any longer, this document will be updated.

Best Regards,
"AntiFa."

From the rector of St. John's Episcopal Church

Gini Gerbasi is with Julia Joyce Domenick.

June 1 · 🌐

Friends, I am ok, but I am, frankly shaken. I was at St. John's, Lafayette Square most of the afternoon, with fellow clergy and laypeople - and clergy from some other denominations too. We were passing out water and snacks, and helping the patio area at St. John's, Lafayette square to be a place of respite and peace. All was well - with a few little tense moments - until about 6:15 or so. By then, I had connected with the Black Lives Matter medic team, which was headed by an EMT. Those people were AMAZING. They had been on the patio all day, and thankfully had not had to use much of the eyewash they had made. Around 6:15 or 6:30, the police started really pushing protestors off of H Street (the street between the church and Lafayette Park, and ultimately, the White House. They started using tear gas and folks were running at us for eyewashes or water or wet paper towels. At this point, Julia, one of our seminarians for next year (who is a trauma nurse) and I looked at each other in disbelief. I was coughing, her eyes were watering, and we were trying to help people as the police - in full riot gear - drove people toward us. Julia and her classmates left and I stayed with the BLM folks trying to help people. Suddenly, around 6:30, there was more tear gas, more concussion grenades, and I think I saw someone hit by a rubber bullet - he was grasping his stomach and there was a mark on his shirt. The police in their riot gear were literally walking onto the St. John's, Lafayette Square patio with these metal shields, pushing people off the patio and driving them back. People were running at us as the police advanced toward us from the other side of the patio. We had to try to pick up what we could. The BLM medic folks were obviously well practiced. They picked up boxes and ran. I was so stunned I only got a few water bottles and my spray bottle of eyewash. We were literally DRIVEN OFF of the St. John's, Lafayette Square patio with tear gas and concussion grenades and police in full riot gear. We were pushed back 20 feet, and then eventually - with SO MANY concussion grenades - back to K street. By the time I got back to my car, around 7:00 or 7:10, I got texts from people saying that Trump was outside of St. John's, Lafayette Square. I literally COULD NOT believe it. WE WERE DRIVEN OFF OF THE PATIO AT ST. JOHN'S, LAFAYETTE SQUARE. I WAS SO SHOCKED AND SHAKEN.

WE WERE DRIVEN OFF OF THE PATIO AT ST. JOHN'S - a place of peace and respite and medical care throughout the day - SO THAT MAN COULD HAVE A PHOTO OPPORTUNITY IN FRONT OF THE CHURCH!!! PEOPLE WERE HURT SO THAT HE COULD POSE IN FRONT OF THE CHURCH WITH A BIBLE! HE WOULD HAVE HAD TO STEP OVER THE MEDICAL SUPPLIES WE LEFT BEHIND BECAUSE WE WERE BEING TEAR GASSED!!!!

I am deeply shaken. I did not see any protestors throw anything until the tear gas and concussion grenades started, and then it was mostly water bottles. I am shaken, not so much by the taste of tear gas and the bit of a cough I still have, but by the fact that that show of force was for a PHOTO OPPORTUNITY. The patio of St. John's, Lafayette square had been HOLY GROUND today. A place of respite and laughter and water and granola bars and fruit snacks. But that man turned it into a BATTLE GROUND first, and a cheap political stunt second. I am DEEPLY OFFENDED on behalf of every protestor, every Christian, the people of St. John's, Lafayette square, every decent person there, and the BLM medics who stayed with just a single box of supplies and a backpack, even when I got too scared and had to leave. I am ok. But I am now a force to be reckoned with.

P.T. Wood announces candidacy for Salida Mayor.

Some 350 people gathered last night at the SteamPlant for the kick-off to FIBArk, the Salida Chamber of Commerce's Business After Hours.

One of those in attendance was Salida business man and current chairman of the Salida Planning and Zoning Commission P.T. Wood. Wood took the opportunity to announce to Heart of the Rockies Radio News of his intention to run for the position of Mayor of Salida.

Wood said in his announcement, "I've been in Salida for almost 30 years and I've opened a number of businesses like Moonlight Pizza and now Woods High Mountain Distillery. I've been involved in the community over those years, 10 years on the Planning and Zoning Commission with the last 6 years as chairman. The natural progression of that in my thinking is to run for mayor. I am running for Mayor of Salida, Colorado.

I think I bring a lot of meeting management skills to the job. I've been able to run consensus building and fairly compact meetings in planning and zoning over the years, meetings that brought different view points together in the middle. I think that's a skill I can bring to the office of mayor.

I am looking forward to hearing ideas, thoughts and concerns of the citizens of Salida and being their Mayor.

Wood will have a presence on Facebook beginning today, search Wood for Mayor. You can send him an email at ptwoodmayor@gmail.com.

Irony level: Expert

Email response from my letter to the EPA regarding the trumpet withdrawing the US from the Paris Climate Accord

Pruitt, Scott via usepa.onmicrosoft.com

7:17 PM (11 minutes ago)

to me

Thank you for your email message.

Promoting and protecting a strong and healthy environment is among the lifeblood priorities for the government. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency is vital to that mission. I am proud to lead this agency, and I seek to listen and learn as we address the issues we face as a nation.

I believe we can grow our economy and harvest the resources we are blessed with while also being good stewards of the air, land and water by which we have been favored.

Together with the dedicated public servants at the EPA and our state partners across this great country, we can and will achieve clean air and water and strong economic growth and job creation. I hope you will visit www.epa.gov to learn more about our work and to follow our progress.

My staff will follow up in response to your email as necessary and appropriate.

Respectfully yours,

E. Scott Pruitt

Jokes for Al Smith Dinner

I'm so excited to be in a room full of Catholics tonight. I'm very religious. In fact, every time I hear Donald talk I shout, "Jesus Christ!" Chase & crackers?

By the way, how the hell did the Pope get hipper than our likely first Female Preident? Can he teach me how to use Twitter? our tweets are great, team! Y chill

I'm so pleased to be at the Al Smith dinner honoring the contributions of Catholics in politics with my thrice divorced, pussy grabbing, opponent.

This night is a welcome break from an ugly campaign. After weeks hearing about sexual assaults, it's a relief to be in the company of so many Catholic priests. NO.

This evening is so glamorous! I feel like I'm at the Oscars, and not just because so many people here helped make the movie "Spotlight" possible. NO!

But can any of us really judge Donald? I mean who in this room hasn't inappropriately groped someone's privates? Oh, just me. fact check

I am really happy to be at the Al Smith dinner with Donald. Actually I'm happy to be anywhere with Donald when he didn't bring any women my husband raped. absolutely NOT. Bill ruins everything not tonight!

This event is about coming together. And I know that if I become President Donald will support me. And if he becomes President...

(start laughing, but not your weird laugh) Sorry I just... I can't do it! It's just so funny! Can you imagine all that tacky gold furniture in the White House?! I guess he'll replace all the stuff I stole in the nineties! which one is the weird one again?

But forreal you guys, I may not be the most fun candidate, or the most charismatic candidate, or the candidate that people want to get a beer with...

That's it. That's all my staff wrote for that one.

As the campaign winds down, I want to sincerely thank all of Donald Trump's supporters for inspiring me to pursue comprehensive education reform. test on millennials in office, preferably black

I think both the Catholic Church and myself could learn a thing or two from Donald. Mainly, don't get mired down in a scandal. Instead, produce numerous scandals per week so none get traction.

is this one a joke or my real life? fuck me. -H

Procedurally, he can do a few things that could have immediate impacts- recounts being #1. States have statutes for automatic recounts, but candidates can request a recount at any time- with associated costs. This alone could have devastating effects on things like the economy etc. He could further foment "active dissent" among his rabid followers...but ultimately, his effects will be much longer lasting. There are now a non-trivial number of citizens that have "proof" through the barker, that we don't live in a legitimate government. Problems though there are, it is legitimate. I've veered into the existential fall-out, but there will be fallout.

The peaceful transition of power is the foundation of democracy. I've always wondered what it's like for emerging democracies when a narcissistic dictator usurps the law. It's surreal to be living it. We so easily take it for granted and forget or are unaware what it means for new democracies when the process works. I'm thinking of Goodluck Jonathan (Nigeria) and more recently Morales in Guatemala.

Excerpts in stunning trumpet-supporter logic, "I know there is a lot of voter fraud. I don't know who is doing it, or how much it is happening, but I know it is going on a lot." This beautiful statement was followed by, "It happens in third world countries, this is the US, we can't let it happen here." This is quoted as best my memory retains it from an interview with a FL resident supporting trump on npr Morning edition.

"When Cox rejoined the crowd, I asked him how he felt about the elected Republicans who'd distanced themselves from Trump in the past day or two. "They will be weeded out," he said. "When Donald Trump is elected, they'll be the first to go. The people are taking over the Republican Party."

Gas up the trains folks... trumpet is going to load them up- are you on the list "to go?" I figure I'm at least in the top 10 groups who are "enemies of the fatherland."

Might be sad to find out we'll need to dump a bunch of public money into the rail infrastructure to pull this off...

I take a more cynical approach- I think there is real possibility of the trumpet winning and it's because a lot more people are willing to vote for his vile beliefs than are willing to admit it publicly, or in polls, or what have you. Seems to be working wonders in the Philippines... they voted a similar sociopath into office and he's basically delivering on all his craven promises. Death squads at the top of the list. Where were all you clowns, those of you wringing your hands, and clutching your, or your wife's pearls now that trumpet has "insulted" yer wimmen, when he was spewing equally vile shit about Mexicans, or Muslims or threatening to lock up women that have abortions? You, the same clowns calling for pence to take over for trumpet- a man so reprehensibly anti-woman he'd look more appropriate dressed in animal skins and carrying a club. Take a gigantic look in the mirror- there's the real problem.

Eric, I like your posts, I respect you as a person and that goes to voting and political beliefs. I even like your rants. All of them, sans this one. I'll unfriend you now since I disagree with name calling and taking a "holier than thou" position. I think many people can be misguided, manipulated, etc., yet are not quite "absolute fucking idiots" as you described. Btw, I'm neither a Republican nor a Trump supporter (personally I think Trump in office would be catastrophic for America). Perhaps I'm naive, or maybe just aspiring to be more Zen, but fighting fire with fire only leaves a scorched earth. Said more bluntly, you've become the enemy you hate.

Sorry to hear it Kelly Feagans but so be it. I won't stand by anymore. Sometimes it's time to stand up. Willfully being ignorant is nothing to be tolerated. I'm OK with this. I'm zen with my choice. There is no discourse, or polite conversation when the stakes are this high. Send me to the camps when the Trump train comes.

I follow this US stuff only for "entertainment" for lack of a better word to describe this gong show, and I'm not picking a vote obviously. The point is if your philosophy is tolerance or whatever the right word is, lead by example. Your post is filled with hate, rage, poor language and so on that you are in theory calling him out on. Similarly anyone who seems to say anything about it, you lash out with typed rage. That's kind of not that different from Trump. That's all.
